

A Restorative Justice gathering:

- Resource awareness, Re-narrating identity, Risking closeness

October 18 – 19th, 2024

Christ Church St. James

194 Park Lawn Rd, Etobicoke

parking available / TTC: take Bus # 80 from Keele Queensway to Sherway, get off at Parklawn)

Ryan Schellenberg & Susan

Kroeker make their home in Ohio. Ryan teaches New Testament both in the Methodist Theological School and in a state prison. He is the author of the acclaimed new book, “Abject Joy: Paul, Prison and the Art of Making Do”.

Susan formerly served as the Community Chaplain with Women in Toronto and later with people living on the street. She currently offers spiritual care for hospice patients in their homes.

Ejay Tupe lives in downtown

Toronto and serves as urban missionary with Mission Canada. Coming to Canada from the Philippines at 11 years of age instilled in Ejay a passion for diversity and the importance of inclusivity. His journey into ministry was not just a calling, but a personal conviction to make a difference in the lives of those often overlooked.

Jon Brooks & Vivienne

Wilder Acclaimed Toronto singer Jon Brooks offers a concert Friday evening. A student in inter-faith ministry, Jon’s essential message: “endure in good faith, you are loved” has been deepened by walking with folks inside a local detention centre. He will be accompanied by collaborator Vivienne Wilder on vocals and bass.

sponsored by faith-based organizations including:

Friends of Dismas, Kairos Prison Ministries, Catholic Charities of Toronto, Christ Church St. James, Threshold Ministries, Sisters of St. Joseph, Restorative Justice Housing Ontario, and others

Friday– 5:30 chili supper; 7:00 Ejay Tupe & Jon Brooks concert

Saturday (8:30 – 4:00) - speakers, displays, discussion

Cost: $ 35.00 (includes lunch – bursaries available)

For more information contact: 416-540-4789

Register at: <https://TransformingJustice.eventbrite.com>